The Director, RGNIYD shall constitute a Board of Examiners (BoE) consisting of the Research Supervisor as the Convener and two external examiners (one each from within India and outside) from the panel submitted for the evaluation of the thesis.

No close or immediate relative of the candidate/Research Supervisor can be appointed to act as an examiner.

18.0. Evaluation of Thesis

All the Three examiners including supervisor shall submit their reports independently to the Controller of Examinations (CoE) within three months after receiving thesis (Appendix 'M').

The reports should clearly indicate the recommendation on the acceptance or rejection of the thesis along with a detailed report as follows:

- Highly commended
- Commended
- To be revised & resubmitted
- Not recommended

If the thesis is to be resubmitted or not recommended, reasons must be given by the Examiner justifying the stand in the report.

If all the examiners unanimously recommend the thesis for award of the degree, the candidate will be asked to appear for the viva-voce (Open defence) examination.

In addition, the candidate should carry out the corrections if any, suggested by the examiners, before the public viva-voce examination. The Supervisor shall certify to this effect, together with the list of corrections made before the public viva-voce examination.

If one of the external examiners recommends the thesis to be re-submitted with corrections, the candidate will be asked to incorporate the corrections in the thesis, within a period of three months and resubmit the thesis.

If one of the external examiners recommends the thesis for award of the degree and the other examiner rejects the thesis, then the thesis will be valued by a third External Examiner (in that particular category, namely, Indian / Foreigner) and the third External Examiner's Report shall be final.

If both the external examiners reject the thesis, the thesis is rejected.

On receipt of all the reports, the CoE shall send the photo copies of the reports to the Research Supervisor (Convenor, BoE), who will prepare a Consolidated Report which shall categorically indicate the final decision on the acceptance or rejection of the thesis as per provision of the regulations.

19.0. Viva-voce (Open Defence)

19.1 The viva-voce shall be conducted only when the thesis is finally accepted. A candidate whose thesis has been recommended for the award of the degree by the Board of Examiners shall submit himself/herself to a viva-voce examination in the Department where the research work was conducted. The Research Supervisor with the concurrence of the CoE shall inform the date, time and venue for the conduct of the viva-voce (Open defence) with notification of 10 days before the date of viva and shall send invitations for viva voce.

19.2 The viva-voce Board shall consist of the following:

- Research Supervisor (Convenor)
- One external examiner from the BoE (Chairperson)
- Head of the Department
- Dean of Research

19.3 A copy of the Ph.D. Thesis shall be kept in the Institute Library at least three days in advance for the purpose of reference to those who are interested in the topic. A minimum of 20 participants, consisting of invited academicians, Faculty, research scholars, and students, interested in the topic shall necessarily participate in the viva-voce (Open defence).

19.4 The Chairperson of the viva-voce Board will conduct the proceedings. The research scholar shall present a summary of his/her thesis. In the viva-voce, the Board shall examine the candidate on the thesis and evaluate the performance of the candidate.

The Board will ensure that all the questions raised by the examiners are answered satisfactorily.

If the performance of the candidate in the first attempt is not satisfactory, the candidate must be asked to reappear for the viva-voce again within one month.

19.5 The performance of the candidate in the viva-voce (Open defence) shall be judged by the Viva-Voce Board. The report on the viva-voce will be submitted by the Convenor/Chairperson to the CoE. In the report, it shall be mentioned whether the Degree of Doctor of Philosophy can be awarded or not. The report shall include the list of participants in the open defence with their designation, address and signature.

19.6 On receipt of the report of the viva-voice board, necessary steps have to be initiated by the CoE for notification of degree with the approval of the Director and subsequently for approval of the Academic Council & Executive Council for issue of Degree Certificate in the convocation. (Appendix N1 and N2).

20.0. Publication of the Thesis

The thesis, once submitted to RGNIYD, becomes the property of the Institute. The candidates who wish to publish the thesis in the form of a book should seek written permission from the Institute through Research Supervisor. It is necessary to make proper acknowledgement to the university and the Research Supervisor. Once published, two copies of the publication should be submitted to the Registrar through the Research Supervisor for onward transmission to the Institute Library.

21.0. Research Ethics

RGNIYD is committed to undertake research with proper scientific procedure and in conformity with the accepted code of principles on Good Research Practices. All Research Scholars and Supervisors shall follow the guidelines of Good Research Practices while planning and executing research. All Researchers must be aware and comply with the ethical and legal requirements relating to human participants, animals, disclosures of personal information, biological material transfer and testing, and biodiversity protection before undertaking research.

All Researchers are expected to follow the standard procedures for conducting research laid down by relevant scientific and professional bodies. Institutional Research Ethics Committee shall scrutinize research proposals to ensure that the dignity, human rights, interests, health, safety and privacy of research participants is protected, that valid consent has been obtained and that the information gained by the research is not outweighed by any costs to the subject in time, effort, discomfort or potential risk.

22.0. Extension and Second Registration

A Candidate who has not been able to submit the thesis even after the completion of the maximum period, may be given an extension period of one year by the Director upon paying a penal fee (as prescribed by the Director from time to time) and other research fees on the request of the candidates and recommendation of the supervisor. A Candidate who has not been able to submit the thesis even in the extended period may be permitted to re-register on such terms and conditions decided by the Academic Council from time to time.

23.0. Power to remove any difficulty

In case of any difficulty in giving effect to the provisions of these regulations, arising out of their interpretation, the Director may initiate such action(s) that s/he deems rational and are in the interest of the Institute and students, and may have such actions ratified by the appropriate bodies at the earliest opportunity.

In case of any difference of opinion between the student and the supervisor during the course of Ph.D programme, the Director has the power to resolve the issue in a manner s/he thinks is in the academic interest of the Institute.

24.0. Depository with UGC: Following the successful completion of the evaluation process and announcements of the award of Ph.D, the Institute shall submit a soft copy of the M.Phil./Ph.D., thesis to the UGC within a period of thirty days, for hosting the same in INFLIBNET, accessible to all Institutions / Universities.

25.0. Provisional Certificate: Along with the Degree, RGNIYD shall issue a Provisional Certificate certifying to the effect that the Degree has been awarded in accordance with the provisions of the Regulations of the UGC.
